

Primary Source Analysis Worksheet

FIRST, list the primary source you choose as an excellent example of how George Washington looked after the health and safety of those under his care:

SECOND, complete the tasks below:

1. OBSERVE

- a. What kind of primary source is it? How do you know?

- b. What do you see in the image? Note details of your observation.

- c. Read the text below the image. What information do you get from the text?

2. REFLECT

- a. What can you learn from studying this primary source?

- b. What do you know about the subject of the primary source? List two or more.

- c. What do you know about life at the time when the primary source was created? List two or more.

3. QUESTION

- a. What would you like to know more about, after having observed and reflected on the primary source?